IN HONOR 58TH BIRTHDAY.

A company of Rock Island ladies yesterday afternoon went to the home of Mrs. Robert Brinkhahn at Mt. Joy, Iowa, to assist in the celebration of her 58th birthday anniversary. The hostess had provided a delightful program of entertainment for the afternoon and she served a delicious course lunch. The house was made attractive and pretty with decorations of spring flowers and Mrs. Brinkhahn was left with a number of gifts. The guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. C. Theus, Mrs. John Schwack, Mrs. Gerdes, Mrs. W. Pankow, Mrs. Schick, Mrs. G. Schmidt, Mrs. Hugo Brinkhahn, Mrs. Frank Brinkhahn, Mrs. Eddie Kakert, Mrs. Herman Kakert, Mrs. K. Nowack, Mrs. Lueh, Mrs. Horst and Mrs. A. Geiger.

GUILD WILL ISSUE PAPER.

At a meeting of the Queen Esther guild of the Memorial Christian church held last evening at the home of Mrs. Grace Cramer, 1923 Twenty-first street, plans were made for the issuing of a class paper to be known as "The Guild Gossip." Miss May Clarke was chosen editor and Miss Grace Graves associate editor. The paper will be issued once a month to guild members. The society also decided to purchase small gold class pins properly engraved. The time was spent following the business session in delightful sociability and sewing, and Mrs. Cramer, assisted by Mrs. Lucella Seward and Mrs. Hazel Burton, served a fine lunch. Ladies were used with pretty effect as decorations of the home.

TANGO TEA FOR BETHANY HOME.

The educational committee of Bethany home will give a tango tea at the Moline Commercial club Saturday, May 30, from 4 to 7 o'clock. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of Bethany home.

FORWARD SOCIETY SESSION.

A meeting of the Forward society of Grace Lutheran church was held yesterday evening. Miss Jennie Sandberg, 308 Fifth avenue, Moline, being the hostess. The time was spent in sociability and the hostess served a nice lunch.

TEA FOR BRIDES-ELECT.

A trio of brides-elect of this city were the guests of honor at a tea given yesterday by the Misses Marie and Loretta Frenier at their home, 1518 Arlington avenue, Davenport. Miss Blanche Murrin, whose marriage to Dr. F. J. Conroy of Sterling is an event of June 2; Miss Sarah Ward, who will wed J. A. Weishar, and Miss Hazel Munger, who will be the bride of Harry White of Chicago in the early summer, were the honorees. A company of 70 tri-city young women were the guests and the hours were from 4 to 6. The wedding colors of the brides-to-be were combined in the decorations of the home, pink and lavender and pink and blue being used with quantities of roses, sweet peas, snapdragons and lilacs. The tea table was set in the dining room and had as its centerpiece a bowl of snapdragons. Lighted pink tapers shaded with pink and held by crystal holders formed a pretty setting for the table. Assisting the Misses Frenier were Mrs. John Grupe, Miss Tessie Emon, Miss Blanche Fink, Miss Ethel Dodson, Miss Irene Illis, Miss Florence Von-Ach, Miss Genevieve Ahrens of Davenport and Misses Elizabeth McEntry, Nina Munger, Nell Murrin and Bessie Wheelan of this city. Miss Marie Stewart Isett was an out of town guest.

A large number of parties are being arranged in honor of the brides-to-be and they will be much feted in the next few weeks. Parties will be given by Mrs. E. W. Lewis, Mrs. James Murphy, Miss Grace Wheelan, Miss Katherine McDonald, Mrs. J. K. Scott, Mrs. George Kuhn and Mrs. Leroy Porter, in the next few weeks.

MRS. CANTERBURY ADDRESSES CLUB.

At the annual meeting of the Davenport Woman's club held yesterday afternoon Mrs. L. C. Canterbury of this city gave a program of poetical readings to illustrate her subject, "Four Centuries of English Poetry." Mrs. Canterbury gave briefly a sketch of the early poets and read from many a brief extract in order to illustrate her points. She took up in order Shakespeare, Ben Jonson, John Milton, John Wilmot, Robert Herrick, Oliver Goldsmith, James Thompson, Alexander Pope, John Cowper, Robert Burns, Wordsworth, Keats, Shelley, Lord Byron, Lord Tennyson, Swinburne, Ros-

TO HONOR MISS LOCKHART.

Miss Bessie Lockhart, whose marriage to Marcus Skarsted is an event of this spring, was again the honoree at a luncheon given yesterday at 1 o'clock by Miss Bessie Moss at her home, 610 Tenth street, Moline. Members of the Phi Delta Psi sorority were the guests. The course luncheon was served at a large table which was lovely with its decorations carried out in the honoree's chosen colors, yellow and white. Yellow satin ribbons extended from corner to corner of the table, crossing at the center and held at the four corners with large bows. The centerpiece was a basket of tulips and at each place was a hand painted heart-shaped card in yellow, and the favors were yellow baskets tied with white ribbons. Miss Moss presented to Miss Lockhart a picture which she had painted, as a gift of remembrance. The afternoon was spent with sewing and visiting. The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. Robert Ryan of this city.

MONDAY STUDY CLUB.

Mrs. S. J. Collins, 1920 Eighth avenue, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Monday Study club at the fortnightly session. Continuing the study of the islands of the sea papers were given by Mrs. M. E. Sweeney, substituting for Mrs. S. J. Ferguson, on the subject "The South Sea Tales" (Jack London). Mrs. Presley Greenawald on "Easter Island," and Mrs. C. W. Hawes on "Coral Islands." The annual business session of the club will be held May 25 at Fejervary park, when the annual election of officers will be held.

DAUGHTERS OF COVENANT TEA.

The quarterly tea of the Daughters of the Covenant of the First Methodist church was held last evening. Mrs. Henry Paulsen, 1201 Twelfth street, acting as the hostess and entertaining 50 daughters and their husbands. Supper was served at 6:30, and was followed by a short business session. Miss Violet Doney and two selections, and Mrs. I. O. Schultze gave the lesson topic. A delightful social hour was enjoyed.

QUEEN ESTHER CIRCLE CONCERT.

Under the auspices of the Queen Esther circle of the First Methodist church an entertainment will be given by the church Friday evening, May 15. The program will be given by Mrs. L. B. Canterbury, dramatic reader, Miss Bessie Nofsker, organist, Mrs. J. F. Witter, soprano, and Miss Elizabeth Chaney, violinist.

SOCIETY ADDS 23 MEMBERS.

The Young People's society of the German Evangelical church held a business and social meeting yesterday evening at the church basement, with 50 of the members attending. Twenty-three new members were received and the meeting was turned into a reception in their honor. Short talks were made by Edward Lamp, Fred Helpenstell and Rev. F. J. Rolf. There was a guessing contest in which the prize was won by Miss Hilda Grothe. During the serving of refreshments each guest was asked for a short toast.

SEVENS CLOSING SESSION.

The last of the regular meetings of the Sevens was held last evening with Miss Florence Houghton, 1615 Twelfth avenue as the hostess. Officers for the coming year were chosen and Miss Ann Schillinger of Moline was named vice chairman, the president's chair being permanently vacant in memory of Miss Swan. Miss Blanche Searle of this city was named secretary-treasurer. Two resignations were presented and one was filed and the other laid on the table. The annual outing of the club was fixed for June 6 at Fejervary park inn, Davenport. The program of last evening was given by Miss Grace Putnam, who read a paper prepared for a previous meeting telling of Robin Hood, the hero of the English. Haverlock, the hero of the Scandinavians and Samson, the Hebrew.

ARE WRINKLES MORE COMMON?

Because life is more complex—Because women are interested in so many more things than they used to be—Because dividing a day among household duties, politics, clubs, charities, society, business, and personal care is a strenuous thing—and strenuous life makes marks upon the face, the woman of today who wants to look right in its uneven light and many of the wisest and best have decided upon this economical vegetable jelly cream as the simplest wrinkle remover and skin stimulator. It protects the surface of the skin and brings the blood to the surface where it performs its upbuilding work. Just get from your druggist an ounce of almond oil, put it into a fruit jar and add half a pint of water and two tablespoonfuls of glycerine. Let this mixture stand for several hours, stirring occasionally during this time. Before retiring apply rather quickly over wrinkled or flabby surface and allow it to dry. It will harden rapidly and, when applied, you will note a slight tightening of the skin. In the morning remove with hot water and note the immediate effect which is lasting.—(Adv.)

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

If there is danger of forgetting the baking after it is placed in the oven, set the alarm clock at the time you think it would need attention, and you can attend to your other duties without worry. Clean mirrors with ammonia water. Do not let the rays of the sun fall on mirrors if it can be avoided, as they affect the metallic coating of the glass. For coffee stains put a basin underneath and pour hot water through the material. To prevent drawstrings in underwear from slipping out when the garment is laundered, fasten at each end with a small safety pin.

THE TABLE.

Club French Dressing—One-half teaspoonful of salt, one-quarter teaspoonful of pepper, two tablespoonfuls of brandy, two tablespoonfuls of Tarragon vinegar, two tablespoonfuls of olive oil. Mix the ingredients and stir until well blended.

Chamberly Potatoes—Wash, pare and thinly slice potatoes, using a vegetable slicer. Let stand one-half hour in cold water, then drain, and dry between towels. Arrange in layers in a well buttered frying pan, having the pan three-fourths full, and seasoning each layer with salt and pepper, and brushing over with melted butter. Cook in a moderate oven until soft and well browned.

Barbecued Ham—Soak thin slices of ham one hour in lukewarm water; drain, wipe and cook in a hot frying pan until slightly browned. Remove to the serving dish and add to the fat in the pan three tablespoonfuls of vinegar mixed with one and one-half teaspoonfuls of mustard, one-half teaspoonful of sugar and one-eighth teaspoonful of paprika. When thoroughly heated pour over the ham and serve at once.

Combination Salad—Take equal parts of cold boiled asparagus tips, tiny new whole potatoes, marinating both. Between each layer add a few slices of young turnip, young carrots, radishes and celery and a little grated onion or sliced spring onions. A chopped truffle or two makes a pleasing though somewhat expensive addition. Serve with French dressing.

Minuten Fleisch—One and one-half pounds of veal cut in thin slices, salt and pepper, two-thirds cup of claret wine, flour, one and one-third third cups of brown stock, juice of one lemon, two sprigs of parsley. Pound the veal until one-fourth inch thick and cut in pieces for serving. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, put in a baking dish, pour over the wine, and let stand for thirty minutes. Drain, dip in flour, arrange in two buttered pans and pour over the remaining ingredients and the wine which was drained from the meat. Cover and cook slowly until the meat is tender. Remove to serving dish and pour over the sauce remaining in the pan.

Baked Banana Salad—Peel the banana and roll lightly in sugar, place in a granite baking pan and bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes. Serve with a sour fruit juice thickened to the consistency of cream by adding a little flour rubbed smooth with a small amount of butter.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) What do you think of a fellow who takes one girl to a dance, meets another one at the dance (he has only met this girl twice) and says, "Can I take you home? I will take her home first." Then he goes and hires a livery. Which girl does he like best?

(2) What do you think of a young fellow who kind of goes with a girl and then he moves to town and gets going with another girl. He meets this other one at a dance, and takes her home and stays a while there before he goes. He tells her he is going to get married. What do you think of a fellow like this? He always acts friendly to this other girl and wants to take her places.

(3) What colors are going to be worn most this spring?

(4) What color would you think would look good on a girl who has auburn hair and brown eyes and quite a light complexion?

TANGO DANCER

(1) Looks to me as if he had a "crush" on the second girl, though it may only have been temporary.

(2) Why, my dear, I think he was giving her to understand that although he was nice to her, he didn't want her to think he was in love with her or intended to marry her.

(3) Bottle green is the fashionable color, and almost every shade of blue is popular.

(4) Bronze green and shades of brown to match your hair would be very becoming to you I should think. White, yellow and some shades of pink and red would probably look well for evening dress.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am engaged to a fellow whom I love very dearly. I signed at one time, but think that God has forgiven me, as I did not continue doing so, but always led a good life before and after. Do you think I should tell this fellow of it? I think I would be broken hearted if I should lose him.

(2) Can you give me a recipe for some liquid that will curl the hair?

RAE.

(1) I do not think it will do either of you any good to dig up the past. If it has taught you the lifelong lesson that if it means sacrifice to be good, even if it means a better girl, at times, you are perhaps a better girl. At any rate I wish you happiness, my dear, and I hope you will be a good loving wife all your life.

My dear, the very fact that you ask me shows that you do not approve of your cousin's acts. Being a fourth cousin is almost the same as being no relation at all. The law allows fourth cousins to marry each other. The young man is taking advantage of his distant relationship to have as much fun with you as you will permit.

When a boy can kiss and hug a girl he usually tells her he thinks all the more of her because of it. But actions speak louder than words. The boy who does the kissing and hugging usually gets tired of the girl and wants to marry some other girl who isn't so "easy."

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When going uptown is it proper to let some boy friends take us home, as we know them very well? Our parents object.

WORRIED.

As you are quite young, it would be better to heed your parents, as they probably have good reasons for objecting, which you do not know. Even boy friends whom you know very well may not be the best company for a girl.

In the province of Sind, India, there are more than 3,513,000 people, and yet there are occasional tigers, panthers, leopards, wolves and hyenas. The gad, or wild sheep, the ibex, the chinkar, the black buck and the hog deer are comparatively common.
